

FINANCING DATA. SAVING LIVES.

The Complex Risk Analytics Fund (CRAF'd) is the first and only global financing instrument dedicated to financing, connecting, and reimaging the data that saves lives. Thus far, CRAF'd partners have invested over $40 million in crisis data, analytics, and artificial intelligence (AI), the navigation system that helps steer $12 billion in annual crisis action worldwide. As the connective tissue of the global crisis data ecosystem, CRAF'd links over 180 organizations to the datasets, tools, and platforms that make crisis response earlier, faster, more targeted, and more dignified. Almost 100,000 users across 390 organizations rely on CRAF'd-funded insights to guide decisions when every moment matters.
